"THE ART OF CIVILITY"

Thursday, December 2, 2010

5:00pm to 8:00pm

Registration Fee $150

Kindness and respect for one's fellow human being is at the basis of all civilized societies. Treating others with courtesy, thoughtfulness and cooperation not only produces a more civilized society, but also makes our world a better place in which to live. This kindness and care for another comes not just from following certain rules of behavior and etiquette guidelines, but from genuinely caring from within.

"The Art of Civility" program explores these sentiments and applies practical methods for practicing civility at home, in the workplace and in various social environments. Participants will also enjoy a multi-course luncheon providing further exploration into civilities associated with the table and fine dining.

Program Highlights Include:

- Civilized vs. Uncivilized Behavior
- The Golden Rule
- Positive First Impressions
- Image/Grooming/Style
- Dress Codes for Success
- Speech and Diction
- Art of Introductions
- Forms of Address/Titles/Remembering Names
- Invitations/The Written Word/Stationery/Correspondence
- Electronic Manners/Email/Cell Phones
