Presents

"The ART of Conversation" at Los Angeles County Museum of Art

Sunday, January 30, 2011

5:00pm to 8:00pm

$150/person

"The ART of Conversation" is a 3-hour event for adults combining a stimulating tour of varied artworks at LACMA with the fine art of conversational skills.

The evening begins with a one hour thought-provoking art tour at LACMA presented by Quick Culture Art Guides. Following the art tour, participants enjoy cocktails as Lisa Gaché of Beverly Hills Manners™ explores the intricacies of today's modern manners and how to excel at everyday conversation. Participants learn how to make introductions at parties, enjoy meaningful exchanges and what to say and what not to say in all the classic situations.

The evening ends with a superb multi-course dinner at the Pentimento Cafe, the museum's restaurant, owned by the Patina Group. The formal dining tutorial introduces participants to proper table and dining etiquette including styles of eating, finished and resting positions, handling of utensils and glassware and managing of specific types of foods and beverages.

Additional etiquette topics include:

- Initiating a Conversation
- Listening skills
- Interrupting
- Personal Space/Body language
- Compliments/Apologies
- Discussion Topics
- Ending a Conversation

Enrollment Policy: Please complete the attached enrollment form and mail along with your payment of $150.00 to: Beverly Hills Manners, 1075 Angelo Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210. Upon receipt of your payment, your space will be reserved.

Important Class Information: Please arrive 15 minutes prior to tour time. We will meet at the tables in front of LACMA's gift store on the main plaza level at the top of the staircase. Beverly Hills Manners will be stationed in front of the store holding a sign.
